

14th Annual South Bay Conference for Women 2012

Marketing Opportunities

Would you like to reach over 450 women and men in your community, all in one place? If so, we have the perfect vehicle for you and it has limited impact to your budget. If you'd like your company name to be seen, your brand to be remembered and your products and services to be appreciated, this is a wonderful opportunity for you.

We are currently accepting product and service donations valued at $50.00 or higher for our 14th Annual South Bay Conference for Women 2012 to be held Friday, April 13, 2012 at the Torrance Marriott. We are especially interested in items that are attractive to women and their families: gift certificates, baskets, weekend getaways, etc. Use your imagination! Items valued at $100 or less may be packaged with other items. Please note we cannot accept items/certificates that require a purchase or are for a one-time consulting service.

Your support is tax-deductible. A portion of the proceeds will be used for scholarships for college-bound seniors attending schools in the South Bay and charitable contributions to community organizations.

Tax ID #26-3854080

All items will be placed on our online auction site, Bidding-For-Good, and seen nationwide as well as on our website www.mbwib.com. Your donated item(s) will be promoted with signage featuring your company name and contact info and will be included on a "thank you" list in our program.
